HEAR Reports from Student Board Representatives
Noelle Mendoza and Rachel Perry, ASB representatives from Hoover High School shared how they continue to work on their Human Element project to reach a larger audience, as of now, they have ideas to create an Instagram page called FresnoKind. Also, they asked schools to bring in book donations for the Chamber of Commerce, and shared, that during March Madness they will have lunch activities every day in the quad, along with Breaking Down the Wall.

Students from Tioga Middle School were present and spoke about what they love about being a student at their school.

HEAR Report from Superintendent
• Highlighted celebrating Read Across America in honor of Dr. Seuss’ birthday. During this week, educators donned their funny Dr. Seuss outfits, hats, colored hair and even socks to help celebrate the joy of reading. Students, community leaders, college athletes, district staff, board members and others got together, all in an effort to bring reading to life for our elementary students.
• Superintendent shared that the Association of California School Administrators or – ACSA – Region IX recognized several top leaders from throughout the Central Valley at their annual awards banquet. This year, Fresno Unified had several administrators who were recognized. Congratulations to: Vang Pao Principal – Yua Lee; Central Office Administrator – Holland Locker; Classified Leader from Operations – Alex Belanger; Adult Education Administrator – Raine Bumatay; Student Services – Amy Hardcastle
• Superintendent shared that two of our Fresno Unified schools have been named a 2019 California Distinguished School. Congratulations to Baird Middle School and Design Science Early College High School. They are among 162 middle and high schools throughout California who were given this distinction, based on their academic performance and progress as well as their successful school climate. Both schools will be celebrated at a special awards ceremony in Anaheim this April.
• Superintendent thanked the Board for their recent investments in high school weight rooms. Phase one, which included Duncan, Fresno High, and Edison are complete. Phase two is underway and over the next months, we expect our comprehensive high schools to be completed.
• Last, Superintendent acknowledged and thanked board secretary, Jennifer Aguilar. This was Jennifer’s last board meeting as she has taken a new position and will be supporting our Chief Academic Officer.
